Background: Legislation approved by the Rhode Island General Assembly and signed into law on July 6, 2021, by Rhode Island Governor Daniel J. McKee authorizes the transfer of the Employer Tax section from the Division of Taxation to the DLT. This includes the equivalent of approximately 35 full-time employees.

The Employer Tax unit processes all quarterly tax and wage reports (on Form TX-17), and accompanying tax payments, that are submitted by Rhode Island employers. These payments include all required state unemployment insurance taxes, Job Development Fund assessments, and TDI taxes.

The Rhode Island Division of Taxation, part of the Rhode Island Department of Revenue, is open to the public from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. business days. For more information, contact the Division of Taxation at (401) 574-8829 or see https://tax.ri.gov/about-us/contact-us.
